CAIRO APPROVES PARTICIPATION OF US SPECIALISTS IN A321 CRASH INVESTIGATION

News / Airlines

On Monday, the US side offered its assistance in the investigation into the A321 crash to both Moscow and Egypt.

> “Egypt has already accepted the application of American investigators that are associated with the manufacturers of the engine to become part of the investigative team, and they are free to incorporate any advisers they deem as necessary for them to undertake the responsibility,” Shoukry told CNN in an interview on Tuesday.

CNN reported, citing a source with knowledge of the investigation, that US National Transportation Safety Board, a body responsible for civil transportation accident investigations, received a word from Cairo that its offer to assist was accepted.

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.

On October 31, an Airbus A321 operated by the Russian airline Kogalymavia crashed in Egypt's Sinai Peninsula. All 224 people on board were killed. The crash has become the largest civil aviation disaster in Russian and Soviet history.

12 NOVEMBER 2015

SOURCE: RUAVIATION
ARTICLE LINK:
https://ids.50skyshades.com/news/airlines/cairo-approves-participation-of-us-specialists-in-a321-crash-investigation

© 2015-2026 50SKYSHADES.COM — Reproduction, copying, or redistribution for commercial purposes is prohibited.